Impressive Community Exercises Held Here In Observance Of V-E Day

With a catch in their voices, Adams countians Tuesday evening joined with other millions throughout the nation and the Allied world in giving thanks for a victorious end to the war in Europe, in paying tribute to those of the armed forces, living and dead, who made the victory possible by dedicating themselves to see the war in the Pacific through to final victory.

In this county those feelings were put into words by Judge W. C. Sheely, the Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock and Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz at community V-E Day services conducted in front of the Hotel Gettysburg.

Many of the throng of several thousand persons who gathered there had heard similar feelings expressed by their pastors in local church services. Similar ceremonies were conducted simultaneously in other communities in the county.

Conclusion Impressive
Appropriate addresses at the exercises in center square were climaxed impressively by a period of silence in which the crowd faced the west to offer "a prayer of Thanksgiving for our victory over Germany; a prayer for our deceased Commander in Chief; for all our men and women who have given their lives in service; for all those released from prison camps; for those facing the Japanese; for all persons in service and for their families; for a speedy ending of the war with Japan and for ultimate and everlasting peace."

The silent prayer was concluded by the singing of "The Lord's Prayer" by Mrs. Henry M. Scharf. The exercises concluded with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," led by Mrs. Scharf.

Flag at Half Mast
Judge W. C. Sheely presided as master of ceremonies, speaking from the front balcony of the hotel. Across the front of the balcony was draped a large American flag and back of the speakers hung a large Red Cross banner, both supplied by the Red Cross. Near the microphone was placed a large basket of flowers contributed by the Wayside Flower shop "in honor of the service men and women of Adams county."

Above the hotel the Stars and Stripes floated at halfmast, a silent reminder of the month-long national period of mourning for the late Commander in Chief.

Paying tribute to the part Adams county has played in the winning of the war in Europe, remembering those who made the supreme sacrifice and their families, declaring that victory had come only by the will of Almighty God and pointing the need for continued war effort for final victory over Japan, Judge Sheely said in conclusion:

"Joy and Sorrow Mingled"
"This day of rejoicing would be meaningless if we did not rededicate ourselves to the accomplishment of our ultimate goal—everlasting peace throughout the world. Let us move forward with a firm and abiding faith."

Then Judge Sheely presented the Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, rector of St. Francis Xavier Catholic church and a chaplain overseas in World War I.

Describing V-E Day as one of "joy and sorrow mingled," Father Stock urged his hearers to give thanks to God this nation had been spared the devastation that came to the civilian life of Europe. Declaring the Germans must pay for their violations of the Divine law and the laws of men, he pleaded for a spirit of forgiveness. "To be unforgiving will not be effective as of today and quipped:

Midnight Curfew, Racing Ban Off

Washington, May 9 (AP)—Immediate lifting of the midnight entertainment curfew and the ban on horse and dog racing was announced today.

Fred M. Vinson, director of War mobilization and reconversion, said that the action was effective as of today and quipped:

"The curfew shall not ring tonight."

He told a news conference that the lifting of the ban on race meets did not affect restrictions of the Office of Defense Transportation on the shipment of race horses, and referred inquiries respecting these restrictions to ODT officials.

2,500 Attend Church V-E Day Services

All churches of Gettysburg were well filled for the V-E Day services Tuesday evening which preceded the community service on center square. A survey today indicated approximately 2,500 persons attended services at the churches.

Special services were conducted by the pastors and in some instances by guest pastors. A number of the churches used the V-E Day service as prepared by the Council of Federal Churches.

Text Of V-E Day Addresses

The text of the address of Judge W. C. Sheely follows:
"The war in Europe is over. Today is one of the most glorious days in the history of our country. We are justified in a feeling of joy, in a feeling of thanksgiving that this phase of the war is over. Yet as much as it means to us, we cannot fully appreciate the significance of the end of this conflict. Only those who have really suffered the hardships of war can appreciate that—the people of the countries now liberated which were overrun by the enemy; the prisoners who have been released from the horrors of prison camps; the families who have been waiting anxiously for word from their loved ones. It is to them that our thoughts turn in this hour of joy."

"It is with a feeling of sorrow that we realize that our commander in chief who helped to plan the strategy of this war and who gave his life in the prosecution of the war, could not live to witness the realization of one of his highest dreams—the overthrow of Nazi tyranny in Europe. To him and his memory our thoughts turn tonight."

Purchased At High Cost
"At the beginning of the war, Winston Churchill said that victory would not be easy—that it must be purchased by blood, sweat and tears. This victory has been purchased by blood and by sweat and by tears—the blood of many thousands of Americans and of our Allies, the sweat of millions on the fighting fronts and on the home front, and by the tears of the world. One hundred thirty-nine thousand of our men will not return from overseas. They gave their lives that others might live. For them there is a grave on foreign soil. To them and to their families our thoughts and prayers are directed tonight."

"Tonight as we celebrate this victory, thousands of our armed forces are still facing the enemy in the (Please Turn to Page 2)

Believes Treatment Yank Prisoners Got Should Speed Drive

Sgt. Wilmer (Jake) Dracha, former Gettysburg borough secretary and now serving with the Medical Corps in France, believes that if Adams countians could see the condition of prisoners released from Nazi prison camps it would speed the Seventh War Loan drive "over the top."

In a letter to Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the county war bond committee, Dracha wrote in part:

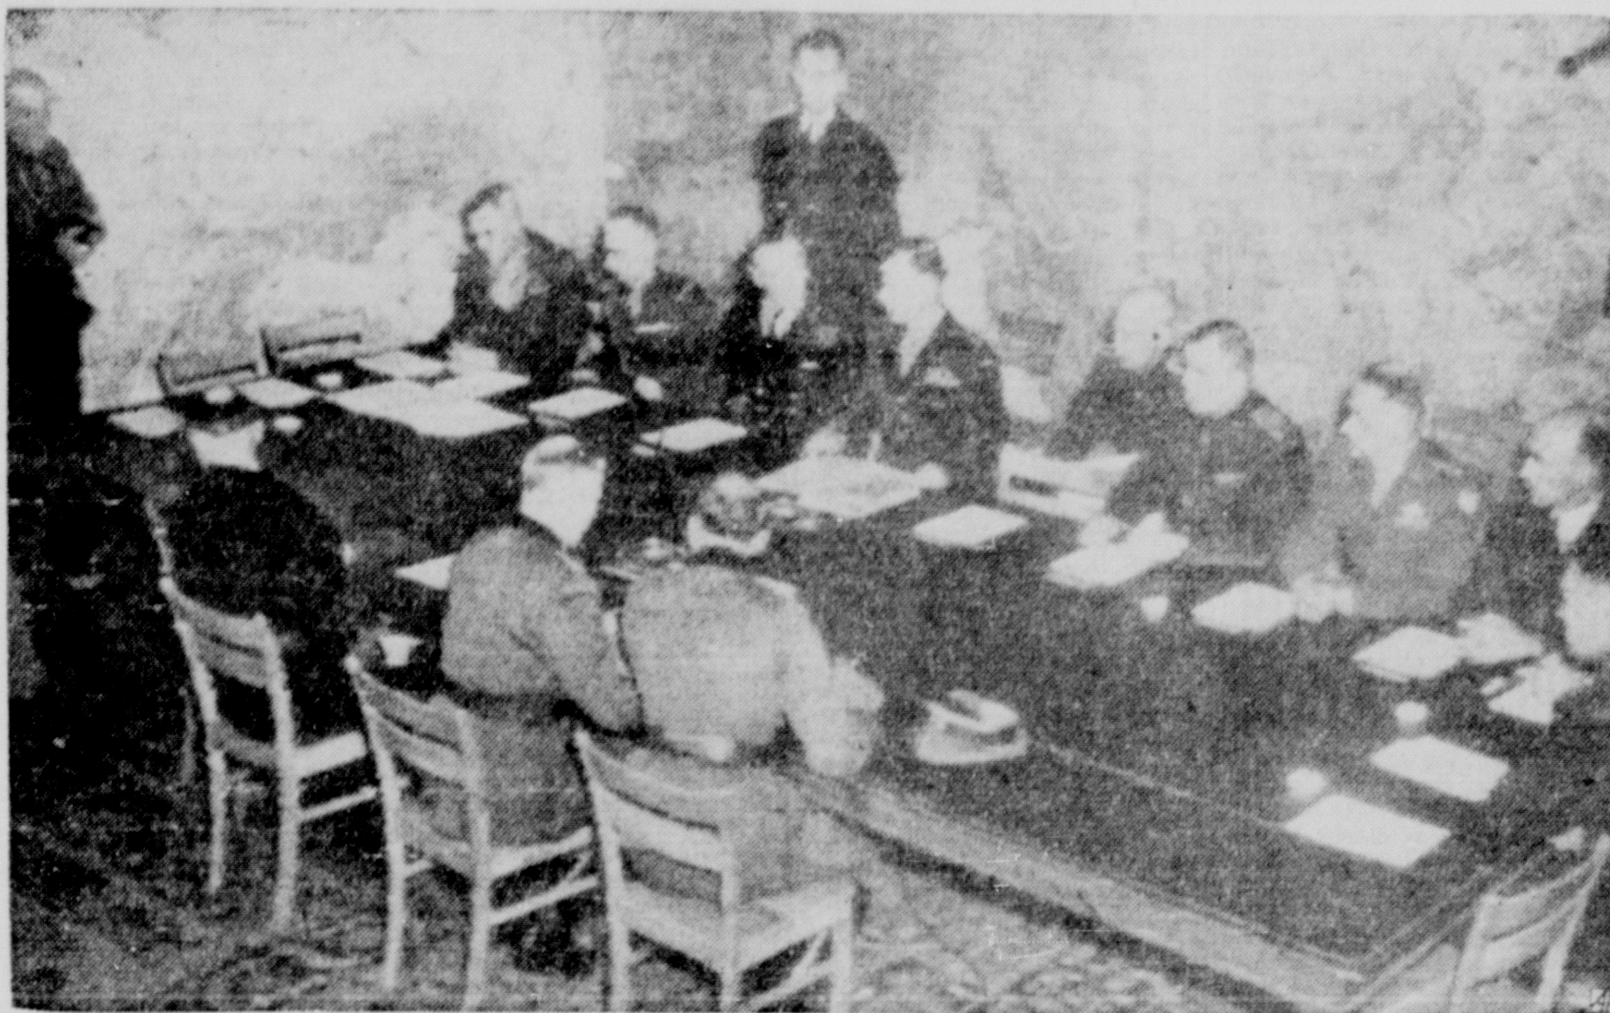

"We really can vouch as to what has happened up front and what they are doing to our boys. I just wish, for instance, you and the rest back home could see personally what happened to the fine bodies of boys that were in prison camps. It must be seen with one's own eyes to be believed. The suffering and agony that some of these kids have gone through is terrible. Your Seventh War Bond Drive would go away over the quota if they could see only part of what we have seen."

FATHERS PAY FINES

Two fathers paid $2 fines and costs each on charges of permitting their children to remain away from school, Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore reported this morning. Philip Baral, Gettysburg R. 4, was charged by the Straban township school board with allowing three children to remain from school, while Sherman Speelman, Franklin township, was charged by his school board with allowing a son to remain at home.

ANNOUNCE DAR Blood Donor Service ESSAY CONTEST PRIZE WINNERS

Doris Ann Gaines and Kathleen Jones, seniors at Gettysburg high school, are the first and second prize winners, respectively, in the annual Daughters of the American Revolution essay contest conducted at the school. It was announced today.

The first prize of $10 and the $5 second prize will be presented to the winners as a special assembly program to be held at the high school Wednesday morning, May 23, at 8:50 o'clock. At the same time, prizes will be awarded to two junior students who take first and second place in all-around achievement and excellence in their American history studies.

The American history prize winners will be announced later as the class work in history is not far enough advanced to enable the faculty to select the leaders.

Dr. Ehlman To Speak
The main speaker during the program will be the Rev. Dr. D. F. Ehlman, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed church, New Oxford.

The program will open with music by the high school orchestra under the direction of Edwin Longenecker. The audience will sing America and Barbara Wolff will lead in devotions. Two Boy Scouts will lead in the pledge of allegiance and then Miss Wolff will introduce the local DAR chapter regent, Mrs. Mark K. Eckert, who will make the presentation of awards to the prize winners.

Following the awards Miss Gaines will read her essay, entitled "Youth In The Post-War World." The high school chorus, under the direction of Prof. Richard B. Shade, will present special music, after which Doctor Ehlman will deliver his talk.

The singing of the Star Spangled Banner by the audience will close the program. Judges of the essays were Mrs. Albert Bachman, the Rev. Harry Ecker and the Rev. Howard S. Fox.

Demonstration For School Officials

A group audiometer demonstration will be conducted at Glatfelter hall on the Gettysburg college campus, Wednesday, May 16, at 7 o'clock in the evening. Miss Dorothy M. Warner, county supervisor of special education, announced today.

The demonstration will be held for all principals, elementary and secondary teachers and school nurses interested in the audiometer work. Miss Warner said, "It will be an instruction lesson which will enable a teacher to administer the hearing tests to schools not served by a school nurse." Miss Warner stated in a letter mailed this afternoon to county educators.

Curtailed; Ends Here

With the announcement today of the curtailment of the Red Cross Blood Donor program due to reduced requirements on the battlefield, the Red Cross disclosed that 19 of the 30 blood donor units in the nation are being closed down with only 11 being continued.

That announcement disclosed that the Harrisburg center, together with most of the other centers on the east coast, is being closed so that no more visits of the mobile blood receiving unit will be made to Gettysburg.

With Monday's visit here when 222 couilians donated blood that put the center's grand total at 3,089 pints since the periodic visits were begun in January, 1943 the Blood Donor service program came to an end in this county, Radford H. Lippy, county Donor Service chairman, was informed today.

Over 1,000 Gave Blood Here
A letter today to Mr. Lippy from the Harrisburg center enclosed national Red Cross announcements concerning the change in the Blood Donor program said in part: "We were very much pleased with the fine results in Gettysburg Monday as well as the usual fine cooperation given our staff by your volunteers. Will you kindly extend to them our sincere thanks? . . . We appreciate very much all that your chapter has done for this service."

County chapter files show that more than 1,000 Adams county men and women, the great majority of them from service flag families, donated an average of three pints of blood each during the more than two years of the operation of the Donor Service here. The visits first were monthly but late in 1944 and early this year the visits came at greater intervals because doctors were not available for more frequent visits.

The Harrisburg unit which came here collected a total of 173,000 pints of blood for conversion into plasma for life-saving uses on world battlefronts.

Pointing out that the closing of the Harrisburg unit along with others in the nation is in line with a reduction in Army and Navy requirements from 90,000 to 45,000 pints per (Please Turn to Page 5)

Arrogant Nazis Anger Yankees At Surrender

Berchtesgaden, May 8 (Delayed) (AP)—The German army's 82nd Corps surrendered to the U. S. 101st Airborne Division in a field out here at the edge of town—and the proceedings were hard to believe.

A German general in an army vehicle led the parade. Behind him were 30 other vehicles, each packed with staff officers and personnel attached to the general's headquarters. The camp where these prisoners will live is about a quarter of a mile down the road. The Germans were ordered to park their trucks, swanky touring cars and Kraut jeeps in this field to avoid a traffic jam. Brought Liquor, Smokes and Women
These Germans apparently expected to keep their automobiles. GI guards searching for a German car for their own use found that the keys were gone from every last one of them. But that was not all.

Pfc. Clarence E. Lockman, son of Mrs. Daisy Lockman, Orrtanna, was slightly wounded in action in Italy on April 14 according to a War Department telegram recently received by his mother. He was wounded in the right thigh and is reported to be making normal progress in a hospital in Italy.

Lockman was inducted April 12, 1943. He trained at Ft. McClellan, Ala.; Greensburg, Pa. and at a camp in Virginia. Before going to Italy he saw action in Africa.

Pfc. Lockman was recently transferred from an armored outfit to the infantry. When he first entered the service he trained as an infantry soldier.

A brother, Petty Officer 2 C Ivan Lockman, is stationed at San Diego, Cal.

Pvt. Earl Shuyler
Pvt. Earl Shuyler, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shuyler, Orrtanna, was wounded in the right chest while fighting in Italy on Apr. 17, according to word received by his parents.

Last Saturday the Shuylers received a letter from their son informing them he had been wounded and Tuesday an official notice was received from the War Department. He is now convalescing in a hospital in Italy.

Pvt. Shuyler, who is serving with the infantry, was inducted April 19, 1944, and trained at Camp Swift, Texas, and Camp Blanding, Florida. He went overseas last December. His wife, the former Ruth Tressler, and three daughters reside near Fountaindale.

A brother, Cpl. Charles Shuyler, is stationed on Saipan.

Truck Driver Now Faces 2nd Charge

A second charge of involuntary manslaughter was filed Tuesday with Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore against John J. Shank, Jr., York, driver of a truck which was involved in an accident which caused the deaths of George W. and Yvonna Martin.

Shank was released under $1,000 bail on the manslaughter count. A charge of aggravated assault and battery was lodged earlier by state police, and Shank posted $1,000 bail on that count also. An inquest into the accident will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the court house by Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner.

Pfc. Robert B. Fortenbaugh, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, West Broadway, who serves with the Corps of Engineers at Santa Fe, New Mexico, has been promoted to the rank of T-5. He has been in the service for two years.

Reds Liberate Prague; Hostilities Officially Ended; Port Pockets Quit

London, May 9 (AP)—Premier Marshal Stalin tonight announced the liberation of Prague.

By ROMNEY WHEELER

London, May 9 (AP)—A station calling itself the Prague radio said today Russian troops had entered the Czechoslovak capital and that German planes bombed the city and three other points in the republic shortly afterward.

Hostilities in Europe officially ended at 12:01 a. m. battlefront time. At about the same time the Germans surrendered the three French Atlantic ports and U-boat bases of Lorient, St. Nazaire and La Rochelle. A French communique said they had been occupied. The only Germans remaining unsundered on French soil were some 12,000 at Dunkerque, the channel port through which the British expeditionary force escaped in 1940.

Face Summary Execution
About 79,000 Germans were believed to have yielded in the three surrendered ports—all important submarine bases when German undersea raiders threatened Allied victory.

Russia joyously proclaimed the unconditional surrender of Germans before dawn, 10 hours after President Truman and Prime Minister Churchill proclaimed V-E Day following Germany's capitulation at Gen. Eisenhower's advanced headquarters at Reims in France early Monday. A formal ratification of the surrender took place in Berlin yesterday.

Actions such as the reported last gasps at Prague are outlawed under surrender edicts, and German participants may be treated as Francis-Treurs—subject to summary execution.

Nazi Fanatics Fight On
The unconfirmed Czechoslovak broadcast said Prague and three other points in Czechoslovakia were attacked by air. Melnik, Kralupy and a Jewish concentration camp at Terezin, 40 miles north of Prague, were said to have been bombed.

The station did not say where the German planes came from. The possibility was not overlooked that the entire situation might be a German trick in an attempt to get the western Allies to attack the Russians.

The Patriot radio earlier had said last-ditch Nazi SS fanatics reopened fire at 1:50 a. m. (7:50 p. m., Eastern War Time Tuesday), almost two hours after the agreed deadline for cessation of hostilities.

Seventh Army Finds High Nazi Officials

Paris, May 9 (AP)—Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering and Field Marshal Albert Kesselring have been taken into custody of the U. S. Seventh Army.

A Sixth Army Group announcement quoted Goering as saying he had been sentenced to death April 24 for suggesting that he take over leadership of the Reich from Hitler.

Goering's wife and child were taken into custody with him.

Kesselring was the last German commander in chief on the Western front. He was shifted from Italy to succeed Field Marshal Von Rundstedt, captured earlier by the Seventh Army.

Once Was To Succeed Hitler

The corpulent 51-year-old Goering is the self-styled "most faithful paladin of the Fuehrer" and had been designated by Hitler as his successor. But that was before the Reichsmarshal fell from favor in the closing months of Nazi Germany. He is one of the world's greatest collectors of medals, uniforms and art—the latter largely pilfered from countries which Germany overran.

Among other things, he was Prussian prime minister, minister of aviation, president of the Reichstag, minister of forestation, Reich's master of the hunt, director of the Prussian state theaters and opera, president of the German academy of aviation, director over foreign exchange and raw materials and plenipotentiary in charge of the four-year plan.

His arrested wife was the blond, blue-eyed former actress, Emmy Sonnenmann who in earlier days was Hitler's leading hostess.

400 STUDENTS HAVE PARTS IN SPRING CONCERT

The annual spring concert of the Gettysburg public schools will be presented Friday evening at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium. The program will start promptly and will require approximately one and one-half hours.

Participating in the concert will be the Gettysburg high school band under the direction of Prof. Edwin S. Longenecker. This organization will open the program. The band takes an important part in the school program throughout the school year by playing for athletic events, assemblies, parades, and numerous other activities. It also provides an opportunity for those playing instruments to continue their study of instrumental music.

Following the band on the program will be three choral groups from the grade school, junior high school, and the senior high school. These groups will be under the direction of Richard B. Shade, supervisor of music.

Chorus of 150 Voices

The combined sections of fifth grade, taught by Miss Margaret E. Wentz and Prof. Lloyd R. Hartman of Meade school, will start this part of the program. Seventy-four students in this group will sing four numbers.

Following those selections will be the Lincoln school choir having a membership of 150 voices. They will be heard in the presentation of six choral compositions.

The Gettysburg high school chorus of 150 voices will close the program by rendering six numbers. Over 400 students will participate in the entire program of the evening.

"All persons have worked hard and have diligently prepared their parts for this concert. It is open to the public without admission charge," Prof. Shade said today.

26 MINOR FLEET UNITS SUNK BY SUICIDE TACTICS

By ROBBIN COONS

Guam, May 9 (AP) — Twenty-six minor U. S. fleet units, ranking from ammunition ships to landing craft, have been sunk by Japanese aerial attacks during the Okinawa operation "but these losses have not slowed up the Pacific campaign," Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz said today.

"I don't think the results (the Japanese) are achieving compensate for the losses they are taking," the admiral told correspondents at a press conference. Some 3,000 enemy aircraft have been destroyed since start of the Ryukyus campaign March 18.

He described Okinawa as the largest and closest "rung in the island ladder approach to Japan." It is the most important objective American forces have attempted to take in the Pacific.

Warships Busy

Japan's persistence of its remaining air forces in persistent suicide attacks on American shipping off Okinawa is proof it regards Okinawa as highly important and is "making sacrifices to defeat us there," he said.

"I hope they are shooting the works and we find fewer planes at other places."

Nimitz held his press conference shortly after issuing today's communique reporting that navy planes sank or damaged 18 Japanese ships and smaller craft off Korea and Honshu, and that army Mitchells damaged another off Honshu.

For a third straight day, battleships and cruisers heavily bombarded Japanese fortifications in the southern Okinawa line Tuesday and fired hundreds of illuminating shells by night to "effectively reduce the enemy's attempts at infiltration."

JAPS ADVANCE ON MINDANAO

Manila, May 9 (AP)—Japanese troops, in their first show of strength on Mindanao since the April 17 invasion, penetrated American lines near captured Davao City and virtually isolated one Yank battalion, field dispatches reported today.

This battalion, which had seized the village of Mintal, two miles west of Davao City, was being reached by a few American reinforcements sent over a little-used trail, wrote Associated Press Correspondent Richard Bergholz.

Japanese artillery shelled American positions at Libby airfield about one mile south of Mintal. The Yank hold on the airfield was tenuous.

This was the first indication of a fight on Mindanao since Maj. Gen. Roscoe B. Woodruff's 24th Division landed on Moro Gulf and raced 140 miles overland to Davao City in 17 days. The original Mindanao garrison was an estimated 50,000 Japanese troops.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's communique today said the Americans on Mindanao, second largest island in the Philippines, "continue to crowd the enemy into difficult hill country largely cut off from bases of supply."

Participated In Cracking Nazi Line

(Special to The Times)

Sixth Army Group, Germany—Sgt. Charles S. Matthews, 10 Main street, McSherrystown, is a member of the 142nd Infantry regiment which broke through the Moder line at Oberhoffen, captured Wissembourg, and slashed through strong Siegfried line defenses.

These 36th Division infantrymen, among the most battle-weary troops in General Jacob L. Devers' 6th Army group, fought for three days against completely-manned Siegfried defenses but smashed through to get in on the kill of two German armies in the Saar Basin. They observed their second anniversary overseas by boosting their total of German captured to 10,000.

Commanded by Col. George E. Lynch of Orlando, Fla., the men of the 142nd achieved a spectacular record in Italy and France where they stormed strongly defended beaches, waged difficult mountain warfare, and effected rapid thrusts deep into enemy territory.

More Gifts Swell Red Cross War Fund

The Adams county 1945 American Red Cross War fund kept growing today and reached a new balance of $35,189.32 as an additional $100 was received from the Gettysburg National bank in special recognition of V-E day.

The local chapter office received a check and letter this morning which read as follows: "With the unanimous approval of the board of directors of the Gettysburg National bank and in solemn appreciation of the significance of this V-E day, an additional subscription of $100 has been voted with the hope that your excellent society may continue to devote its efforts to the unfinished task that lies before all of us."

Other gifts were received also from the missionary society of the Great Conewago Presbyterian church, at Huntersburg, which gave $10 and from a club of children at Biglerville. The children organized a "Victory club," and presented a play to earn the money for a $5 donation to the war fund.

SEMINARY WEEK OPENS; DEGREES FOR SIX TODAY

The annual Seminary Week program at the Lutheran Theological seminary here opened this morning with three lectures and the spring graduation exercises held at noon in the Church of the Abiding Presence. More than 200 seminary alumni, their wives and guests, were present. Six degrees were presented at the graduation exercises at which Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, of the faculty, presided.

The degree of master of sacred theology was presented to Emmanuel James Hoover, pastor of Grace Lutheran church, York, and Quicke's charge, Zion's View. Those who received the degree of bachelor of divinity included: Hills Grady Baker, pastor of St. Andrew's Lutheran church, Boswell; John H. Fray, pastor of Shepherdstown charge, W. Va.; Elwood Irvin Stahl, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, Altoona; Charles Earl Staub, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Lebanon, and Roland Andrew Ries, pastor-elect of the Zion Lutheran church in Baltimore.

Prof. Harry F. Baughman led in the opening exercises for the graduation program and Dr. Jacob M. Myers read the lesson which was taken from Mark 16:14-20. The degrees were conferred following the presentation of the candidates by Prof. Raymond T. Stamm and the service was closed with the benediction.

Other Addresses Today

Preceding the graduation exercises, Dr. Ross H. Stover, pastor of the Messiah Lutheran church, Philadelphia; Dr. Lawrence E. Bair, of the Lancaster Theological seminary, and Dr. Ralph H. Long, executive secretary of National Lutheran council, delivered talks.

Doctor Stover spoke on "The Effective Use of the Voice in Preaching." Doctor Bair talked on "The Minister and Psychiatry," and Doctor Long discussed "The Peace of the Church in the Postwar World."

Other lectures will be delivered this afternoon by Dr. Gould Wickley, executive secretary of the Board of Education of the United Lutheran church in America and by Doctor Long. Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz, seminary president, was unable to be present for the opening day of the Seminary week, because he was called to New York to take part in a discussion of plans for the reconstruction of European Lutheranism. He will return to Gettysburg for the Thursday sessions.

CENSORSHIP OF NEWS RELAXED BUT NOT ENDED

Washington, May 9 (AP)—News censorship will continue under relaxed restrictions resulting from the end of the European war.

Censorship Director Byron Price last night announced elimination or modification of several sections of the voluntary code that has governed publication of war news in the United States since January 15, 1942. The code soon will be rewritten in shorter form.

Basic military information still is subject to authorization by competent authorities.

Price said "the end of German resistance alters security requirements materially although it by no means erases the need for, or importance of, voluntary censorship."

Some Rules Stand

Provisions dealing with information on attacks by air, weather reports and sabotage were eliminated. Rules on publication of information about war prisoners, internees and civilian prisoners were relaxed to a prohibition against "information as to arrival, movements, confinement or identity of military prisoners from war zones" unless given out by competent authority.

The regulation on damage caused in the United States by enemy action was revised but still prohibits use of "information about actual or impending enemy attacks on the continental United States."

Prohibitions against publication of information on war material production were relaxed to cover only secret or new weapons, designs, formulas, processes or experiments, to material used for "specialized military operations" and to actual movement or transportation of war material.

The identification and location of all American military units in Europe now may be published up to and including May 8. Later movements require appropriate authority.

Sgt. Weaver was graduated from the Gettysburg high school before entering the AAF in October, 1943. He was trained in aerial gunnery at Harlingen, Texas, where he received his wings in July, 1944.

South Pacific. To them the war is far from over—today was just another day of work and danger and bloodshed. We cannot dismiss them from our minds in this hour of joy, and our thoughts and prayers go out to them.

"We accept this victory humbly—with a full realization that it was possible only because it was the will of God Almighty. We humbly offer our thanks to Him and we earnestly pray that we may continue to be blessed with His guidance, and that with His help the total war may soon result in total victory, and that out of these wars may come everlasting peace among men.

Proud Of County

"I cannot refrain from saying that I am proud of the record of Adams county in this war. As always in the past, Adams county has responded to every call to assist in the war effort. Thirty-five hundred of her sons and daughters have answered the call to arms—103 of them have made the supreme sacrifice. Many more thousands have been engaged in the production of war materials and foodstuffs so vital to victory.

"Every call for help by the Red Cross, the USO, the Salvation Army, and other war agencies have been met. Six war loans, totaling millions of dollars, have been oversubscribed. The Seventh War Loan, which is just beginning, will likewise be oversubscribed. Tons and tons of scrap and waste paper have been collected and donated to the war effort. Gallons and gallons of blood have been donated to the blood bank, thousands of bandages and other articles have been made. This is a record of which we may all be justly proud.

"But the war is not over and our task is not finished. Until Japan is decisively beaten, until all the forces of evil in the world are put down, until we can be assured that 25 years will not see another war, we cannot stop. This day of rejoicing would be meaningless if we did not rededicate ourselves to the accomplishment of our ultimate goal—everlasting peace throughout the world.

"Let us move forward with a firm and abiding faith."

The text of the address delivered by the Rev. Dr. Mark E. Stock follows:

"This is a day of joy and sorrow mingled.

"Joy, because war with Germany has come to an official and victorious end. You now cherish hope for the return of your loved ones who have so nobly served our beloved country.

"Sorrow, because many loved ones will not return. They have made the supreme sacrifice that our country might be a better place wherein to live. Take encouragement from the thought that they have not died in vain.

"But let us put this line of thought aside this evening. We made reference to it because we would seem ungrateful were we to be unmindful of their sacrifice. It remains for present and future generations of America to be grateful and to make every effort in handling the affairs of state so as to keep our country an influence for good in the world. We have become a world power and as such we must fulfill our duties with honesty and justice.

"Give Thanks To God"

"There is one sentiment of the heart that we must not allow to escape our attention on this significant day and that is our gratitude and thankfulness to God that we have been spared the frightful destruction of civilian life and property and the terrible atrocities of

Takes Out Letters In Soldier Son's Estate

Mrs. Mary B. Guise, 153 York street, was issued letters of administration in the estate of her son, Staff Sgt. Harman E. Guise, of the Army Air Corps, who was adjudged dead by the War Department one year and a day after he was reported as missing in action December 16, 1943.

The information on file today at the office of Register and Recorder Winfield G. Horner showed that Sergeant Guise was declared dead on December 17, 1944. He was a crew member on a Flying Fortress which was on a mission to Bremen, Germany. The War Department letter to Mrs. Guise said that when last seen the plane was attacked by enemy fighters over the Zuider Zee off the coast of Holland. Sergeant Guise's estate was valued at $489.92 in real estate.

Harrisburg, May 9 (AP) — State Selective Service today ordered Pennsylvania draft boards "to completely fill every call for men" until "the Jap is driven to his knees in unconditional surrender."

Harrisburg, May 9 (AP) — Mrs. Edward Martin returned to the executive mansion today in "fine condition" after a five-week hospitalization to recover from injuries sustained in a fall at Indianatow Gap military reservation April 3.

this war. When we, as one of the Allies, consider this phase of the war that has just come to a close, we may feel like becoming vindictive. But no! We are a law abiding, God-fearing man-loving people. Thank God that we are not a Hitler-molded German youth. What have his methods accomplished for Germany and the German people? They have made Germany an outcast on the face of the earth with little hope of rehabilitation. Germany was an unjust aggressor in this war and as such, both according to the law of God and of man, is responsible and liable for the damage she has wrought. The law of God is to forgive injuries, to be unforgetting will not return the dead to life or restore sight to the blind or limbs and arms to the maimed. But we must forgive, hard as it may be in this case. Property damage, theft of valuables, she as a nation should be held liable, and you can feel sure that the Allies will see to it.

"As this war comes to a close, lift your hearts to God in prayer and may the God of consolation comfort the hearts of those who lost loved ones and may He send His choicest blessings on the homes of all."

The text of the address prepared by Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz and delivered by Dr. Harvey D. Hoover follows:

Fellow citizens of Gettysburg and Adams county:

"Every one of us is thrilled today at the glorious news that hostilities in Europe have ceased. The day for which we have longed and labored, hoped and prayed, has come at last—V-E Day, the day of victory in Europe. And we gather here as a community to lift our faces from the daily task, to rest our hands from daily toil, to express our joy to one another, and to thank our God because Victory has perched upon the arms of our national forces.

"In profound gratitude and exaltation we salute today all our soldiers and all our sailors. Most heartily and most sincerely we congratulate them one and all. They have served us most valiantly on land, on sea, and

TWO HERCULEAN TASKS REMAIN TO BE FINISHED

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press War Analyst)

V-E Day means many things to many people but to the victorious Allies it must be in its essence just a pause on the way to complete our task of crushing the forces of evil which Hitler let loose when he started out to enslave the world.

We still have two Herculean tasks to perform. One is to do to Nazism's Japanese ally what we've done to the Reich. The others is to impose on the Germans a punishment which will be just but which will be so stern that mankind never will forget it.

In particular the war guilty—who run into thousands—should be given the limit of the law and without waste of time. We want no long drawn out public trials, but such expeditious justice as military courts would give.

Still Goose-Stepping Mentally

We should be allowing our passions to rule our minds if we placed the brand on the brow of every German. But we mustn't allow ourselves to be swayed by the soft-voiced words of repentance which now are being poured out by the surrendering Boche officials. It's only a matter of days since their harsh guttural screams driving their troops into battle. It's only a matter of days since we uncovered some of the most awful of the German atrocities—all set in motion by Hitler and his lieutenants.

There's one thing of which we may be sure—the Germans still are goose-stepping mentally. Did you ever see a force of Hitler's death's head guards goose-step? Well, I have—and the awful finality of the crash of their hobnails on the pavement is something to remember. It means war.

The Japanese propagandists now are trying to dissociate their country from the defeated Nazism. They're looking forward to the day when they also will be making unconditional surrender, and they're trying to avoid trouble with Russia. The Japs say they never expected any help from Germany—but they lie, for it was only when they felt sure Hitler was winning the European war hands down that they rushed in and stabbed Uncle Sam in the back. Nippon long had plotted this assault against the western powers, so that she could rule the Orient.

The American-British partnership is losing no time in transferring striking-power from conquered Germany in the Pacific.

New Invasion Soon
Our men in the Pacific, who have been experiencing the atrocities of the savages of the Rising Sun, don't want any compromise. They are determined to smash the Japanese.

As the Washington war office announced at the week-end, the United States is moving about 6,000,000 picked troops to the Pacific. These will be in addition to several hundred thousand British and Australian forces already in action. There will be massed airforces—perhaps even greater than Europe has known—and a vast American-British naval fleet.

The way things look now it's a fair guess that within a few months we shall be invading the Japanese mainland—and that will be the wedge which will split the log in two. This will mean the greatest amphibious operation of history—an assault far exceeding in its intensity the D-Day on the beaches of Normandy—but the Allied experts are sure it can be done. Meanwhile the Mikado's domains are going to be torn by a terrific air assault which is getting under way.

Monday Anniversary Of Lusitania

New York, May 9 (AP)—Germany's unconditional surrender Monday came on the 30th anniversary of the U-boat sinking of the Lusitania—Britain's empress of the sea—which caused the death of 1,198 persons, including 124 Americans.

The big luxury liner was torpedoed May 7, 1915, 10 miles off Kinsale Head, Ireland. It sank in 20 minutes. Perhaps no other act of the First World War did more to alienate from Germany the sympathy of neutral nations.

Theodore Roosevelt called it the "greatest act of piracy in history." In Germany there was exultation.

New Oxford

New Oxford—Miss Amelia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith, was honored upon the occasion of her fourteenth birthday when a party was given at her home by her parents during the past week. Orndorff.

Mrs. Joseph Robinson has recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. Kathryn Wehler Donohue has announced that pupils at the Clear View school who were perfect attendance for the past month are: Jane Hockensmith, Nancy Stevens, Leonard Wentz, Dorothy Daum, Janet Hoffmeins, Martha Small, Robert Reichert, Margaret Daum, Nancy Pope, Raymond Pope, and Charles Grist.

return the dead, restore sight to the blind or arms and limbs to the maimed," he reminded.

Explaining then that Dr. Wentz, president of the seminary, had been called out of town, Judge Sheely presented Dr. Harvey D. Hoover of the seminary faculty who read the address prepared for the occasion by Dr. Wentz.

Stating the need for Divine help and guidance in the "rehabilitation of devastated continents," Doctor Wentz pointed to the limits placed upon the joyous celebration of victory in Europe by reason of the high price paid for victory and by "the enormous size of the task remaining before us."

The accompanist for Mrs. Scharf's solo and for the singing of the national anthem was Mrs. S. F. Snyder.

The mission that prevented Dr. Wentz from being here to participate in the community exercises was a trip to New York to attend a meeting of the central committee of the World Council of Churches which had assembled to meet a notable group of European churchmen here to discuss the church's role in post-war reconstruction throughout the world.

The group from abroad includes the Bishop of Chichester, England; Dr. W. A. Visser 't Hooft, of Holland, and Dr. Marc Boegner, Paris. Dr. Wentz is to return to Gettysburg tonight.

MERRYMAKING IN LONDON FOR SECOND V-E DAY

London, May 9 (AP)—Buoyant merry-makers in this British capital embarked today on their second V-E Day celebration, while parading Soviet citizens in the streets of Moscow held their first rejoicings over the tidings of peace.

There was frolicking in the streets of Paris, Brussels, Amsterdam, Copenhagen and other cities to which peace had come after long tribulation.

In Oslo, capital of Norway, armed German soldiers strolled about the streets watching the jubilant Norwegian celebrants. That curious V-E Day situation, duplicated in other Norwegian towns, was due to the fact that Allied authorities had not yet been able to collect enemy arms.

Street fighting between Danish troops and former Nazi collaborators as well as Germans marred the celebration in Copenhagen.

King, Queen and Churchill

The unrestrained marathon celebration that started in Paris Monday continued in unflagging fashion. Paris and London's non-stop observances set the pace for other European cities.

Despite three earlier talks Prime Minister Churchill appeared on the balcony of the Ministry of Health at Whitehall last night and exchanged repartee with thousands jam-packed into that section.

He reminded the British that "one deadly foe has been cast on the ground and awaits our judgment and our mercy. But there is another foe who occupies large portions of the British Empire—a foe stained with cruelty and greed—the Japanese."

Cheering crowds at Buckingham palace brought King George and Queen Elizabeth out to greet them at midnight for a seventh time. The Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret slipped out of the palace, and accompanied by guards and officers, mingled with the throng.

The mysterious wartime buildings on Hampstead Heath went up in flames, making the biggest V-Day bonfire of them all. They were largely a collection of imitation bungalows forming a fake village, built in 1941 and intended apparently as a decoy for German raiders.

Some Other Celebrations

Thousands of Londoners never got home last night. With the holiday-curtailment transportation jammed hopelessly with skylarking humanity, many bedded down uncomplainingly on benches, open places in Leicester Square and the doorways of Piccadilly.

Hundreds spent the night in Hyde Park.

The victory of the United Nations also was observed in some of Europe's neutral capitals.

In Lisbon Portuguese Premier Dr. Antonio de Oliveira Salazar led the celebration with a toast "Let's welcome victory." The Swiss were happy over the advent of peace, but President Edward de Steiger cautioned his people "We cannot figure on normal times yet."

Allied flags—with the exception of Soviet Russia's—fluttered from buildings in Madrid, but there were no public demonstrations in the Spanish capital.

QUISLING TO BE TAKEN INTO NORWAY COURT

Oslo, Norway, May 9 (AP)—Vidkun Quisling, whose name became a synonym for treachery in this war, was taken to the Oslo jail today from his estate outside Oslo, and will be arraigned publicly in court some time this afternoon under Norwegian law.

The Norwegian Nazi chief, broken by the swift events which toppled his five-year grip in Norway, drove up to the Oslo police station in a bullet-proof car with six of his cabinet members.

While immediate arraignment is scheduled by law, some police officials said he might not be arraigned until tomorrow morning.

(Dispatches from Oslo yesterday said Quisling had been in his lavish suburban home "Gimle," guarded by homefront men.)

The Norwegian home forces rounded up 400 other Quislings throughout the capital. Meanwhile, plans to remove German troops from principal cities to central assembly points for moral surrender went forward in conferences between Brigadier R. Hilton, chief of the Allied Control Commission, and Maj. Gen. Holte, chief of staff to the German commander in Norway.

The first outbreak of violence occurred in Oslo during the night when two Norwegians and a German sailor were killed in a skirmish outside the office of the newspaper Aftenposten.

HESITATE WITH RECONVERSION ON BIG SCALE

Washington, May 9 (AP)—The government began to show signs of hesitancy today at plunging into the reconversion swim.

Involved are two main factors: manpower and metals.

Paul V. McNutt notified the War Manpower Commission's labor-management committee he might have to ask its support for a revival of manpower legislation.

A committee member who requested anonymity quoted the WMC chairman as stating that compulsory labor controls might be needed to halt a possible shift of war workers to peacetime jobs.

Some members informed McNutt at yesterday's closed meeting they did not regard the situation that seriously and would not support legislation if it comes to life again in Congress.

Thinking Changes

The Senate last month defeated a measure that would have permitted the administration to freeze workers to war jobs and place limits on the number of workers plants could have.

WPB—although it wasted no time in freeing the aircraft industry to build commercial airliners—began to back water on its program for relaxing controls over the war metals, aluminum, copper and steel.

WPB thinking has changed three times in about as many weeks. Now the view predominates that the "starved" basic industries—including railroads, farm machinery, utilities, and truck and bus operations—should be protected from any wild civilian scramble for materials.

SOVIET CAPITAL JUBILANT OVER V-E DAY NEWS

By EDDIE GILMORE
Moscow, May 9 (AP)—Thousands of Russians swarmed through Red square shouting "long live Stalin" and "hurrah for victory" as the Soviet capital turned out to the last man, woman and child today to celebrate the end of the European war.

In the center of the cheering, singing throng a group of American G.I.s attached to the U. S. military mission in Moscow danced across the cobblestones with girls from the factories, which had shut down for the celebration.

Uri Levitan, a small dark man with a big voice, gave to 190,000,000 Russians today the momentous news that the war against Germany has ended in a crushing victory for the Soviet Union and her Allies.

Like an Alarm Clock
The immediate reaction to the stirring event was typically Slavic. It was 1:10 a. m. when Levitan—star announcer for the Moscow radio and the man who has broadcast all of Premier Marshal Stalin's orders of the day—came on the air with the glad tidings.

Most of Moscow's residents were asleep, but the announcement acted like an alarm clock. Thousands poured into the streets—some still clad in pajamas and nightgowns. Many wept openly, some fell on their knees in prayer. Everywhere people were shaking hands, embracing and kissing one another on tear-wet cheeks.

Really Means Peace

"It's over, thank God, it's over," was a cry so recurrent among the women that it sounded like a choral chant.

For Russia—the only one of the three great powers not at war with Japan—the news really meant the dawn of peace.

Up to the moment of Levitan's broadcast announcement the Russian people had no word—not even an official hint—that Germany had surrendered. No dispatches on the earlier surrender celebrations in Britain and the United States had been published.

Levitan followed his announcement with a special order from President Michael Kalinin decreeing a public holiday.

MOLOTOV GOES HOME; SEIZED LANDS PROBLEM

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Diplomatic Editor

San Francisco, May 9 (AP)—The United States is seeking an agreement on control of lands seized in both world wars which will allow the Army and Navy to set up bases at any point in the world considered vital to United States security.

The question involved—labeled here one of trusteeship of territory seized from the enemy, mandated after the first World War or incapable of self government—is still a point of controversy between the Big-Five powers. It is one of the two most critical issues remaining before the United Nations conference upon the departure today of Soviet Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov.

The other issue is how to dovetail the Pan-American security system, recently worked out at Mexico City, into the security council of the proposed world organization.

May Be Up To Truman

The American delegation is sharply divided on this question at the moment. Some members favor giving the Pan-American set up no special treatment, but strong opinion appears to be developing for a proposal that the council be given supreme authority over the Pan-American system, but be instructed to delegate to it the power to enforce peace in strictly regional disputes in this hemisphere.

President Truman may have to make the final decision.

Molotov, whose two weeks stay here has been marked by several stormy sessions over Poland, the White Russia and the Ukraine, and Argentina, leaves the conference in an atmosphere of big-power harmony that few would have been willing to forecast within a few days ago. The Soviet ambassador to Washington, Andrei Gromyko, takes over chairmanship of the Russian delegation.

The presence of the Soviet foreign minister for the first to weeks is credited with having speeded the conference through the first phase of big-power agreement. A brief session of the Big-Five last night marked his last official participation.

Polish Question Unresolved

It was there that Stettinius reportedly said that despite the return of Molotov, and possibly of other foreign ministers to their capitals, the United States intends to stand by its agreements already made on basic changes in the Dumbarton Oaks plan and intends also to consult fully on other issues as they arise.

The Commissar's last public action here was a V-E day radio speech in which he said the United Nations must "consolidate their victory" over Germany "for the sake of the welfare of nations and of the cultural development of mankind."

His leaving removes from the immediate conference scene efforts to resolve the Anglo-American-Soviet dispute over Poland. The United States and British ambassadors to Moscow, W. Averell Harriman and Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, also fixed today for their departure.

Assuming some Russian response to British and United States requests for information on 16 arrested Polish underground leaders, it is expected that the two ambassadors and Molotov will try to renew in Moscow their efforts to have Poland's Warsaw government reorganized.

Selective Service Extended By Truman

Washington, May 9 (AP)—President Truman today signed legislation extending the Selective Service Act as a "compelling necessity in the continuance of military operations against Japan."

The President said he signed the bill extending the military draft a year from May 15 (or until the war has ended on all fronts) with reluctance because he did not wish his action to be interpreted as expressing concurrence with a section of the legislation placing "added restrictions on the War and Navy Departments in their management of the fighting forces."

The measure, as passed by Congress, prohibits the use of 18-year-olds in combat unless they have had at least six months of training.

Liquor Licensees Re-Open Today

Harrisburg, May 9 (AP)—State liquor stores and licensed liquor establishments re-opened today after a one-day suspension due to observance of victory in Europe.

Chairman Frederick T. Gelder, with approval of Governor Martin, lifted the suspension ordered by the governor's proclamation in requesting that end of the European war should be observed as "a day of prayer, thanksgiving and work" without jollification or celebration. Gelder said observance with Martin's proclamation was "general and immediate" throughout the state.

After the service the members of the Ladies Aid of St. John's Lutheran church were hosts at a mother and daughter banquet at the parish house.

GARDEN BLUNDERS
We've argued it from year to year
And no decision made:
Do asters like their sunshine clear
Or with a touch of shade?
For when I've worked to plant a few,
My Nellie calls to me:
"In such a place they'll never do.
"Tis elsewhere they should be."

"Twas almost forty years ago
Our garden first we planned
And set some simple things to grow
Upon our bit of land,
And then it was, as I recall,
My lovely Nellie said:
"Geraniums won't do there at all.
They should be here instead."
Henceforth, with each succeeding spring
Of roots or bulbs or seeds
We've fallen into arguing
Each thing's peculiar needs.
And when with hoe and rake and spade
I think my work is done,
I find I've planted in the shade
What needs the morning sun.

Inside the house 'tis woman's way
To move the stuff about,
And it is much the same, I'd say,
With all that I set out.
Confused by needs of plant and vine,
We never quite agree
Where best will flourish columbine
And asters ought to be.

Today's Talk

The Little Human Things
The big things that men do attract attention, and people remember them, but the little human things that men do are what make people love them.

When a great man dies people like to talk about the little human things that characterized his life.
Going out of his way to do something simple and sincere, enacting unusual kindnesses, and never thinking that he was any bigger or better than the one he served. As I understand greatness, that's what it is.

It was these little human things that gave fame to Will Rogers,
O. O. McIntyre and Ernie Pyle.
But bigger than the fame was the love that each accumulated from millions of human hearts. These millions read these writers because they represented their own thoughts, experiences and aspirations. The little human things of everyday life, in which the great majority of people are interested, made up the contributions of these three men.

I was standing in line to get a ticket to a movie recently and got talking to the lady ahead of me.
I asked her if she read the comics, and she said she did. Then I asked her which one she liked best. She named a popular one that dealt exclusively with the family, and said she liked it because it illustrated so many little things that happened in every family.

We can forgive and forget a great many things in people that we don't like, just so long as they remain honestly human, approachable, kindly, and lovable. The humblest and poorest may, in heart, be among the great of this earth.

The little human things that characterize so many lives are in reality the important and enduring things. They are what shape our character and give to us the friends that we hold to throughout life. As a matter of fact, it's the little human things that are interwoven and made a part of our daily lives that make all mankind akin.

Only by habitually giving attention to the doing of the little human things do we gain the kind of happiness that is both inspiring and enduring.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Limitations."

Out Of The Past

The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Store Opens Friday: The Gettysburg Branch of the American Stores company, an organization with between 1,300 and 1,400 stores scattered throughout the country, opened Friday morning at 8:00 o'clock for business in its room in the Times building.

During the past several days J. C. Kurtz, formerly of Philadelphia, who is manager of the store, has received practically his entire stock of groceries.

First Meeting in New Rooms: Incidents in connection with one of the most notable events in history—Lincoln's Gettysburg Address—gave added significance Monday evening to the first meeting of the Albert Lentz post of the American Legion in the Stallsmith building. While in Gettysburg President Lincoln was the guest of David Willis, who lived in that building.

Those wishing to contribute gifts to make the rooms homelike are asked to notify Horace Smiley or Walter Swisher or leave them at Weaver's store or Dubbs and Pitzer on the Square.

Eppleman—Hinkle: George C. Eppleman, son of John Eppleman, of near Bendersville, and Sarah Helen Hinkle, of Mount Tabor, were married recently in the Lutheran parsonage in Bendersville by Rev. W. D. E. Scott, pastor of that place.

Seven New Employees: Seven new girls began work Monday morning at the throwing plant of the J. H. and C. K. Eagle company, bringing the total number of female employees to sixty. Fifty-five men are employed at the Eagle plant also.

Move Dispensary: The State Tuberculosis Dispensary which has been located on Baltimore street, opposite the Postoffice building has been moved to the District Attorney's Office in the Court house.

King—Shuff: Paul E. King, of Gettysburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. King, of Littlestown, and Miss Hilda A. Schuff, of Gettysburg, daughter of Lewis Shuff, were married by Rev. Joseph B. Baker at the St. James Lutheran parsonage on Monday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Lodge Will Give Keynote Speech: Washington, May 5—Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, is to be temporary chairman of the Republican National Convention at Chicago and will deliver the keynote speech according to Republican leaders in Congress who have conferred recently with Chairman Hays, of the Republican National Committee.

Commencement Honors: Raymond Thomas Stamm, of Milton, will deliver the valedictory and Frank Warren Bingham, of Estery, the salutatory, at the college commencement exercises in Bruc Chapel June 9, it has been announced by the faculty.

Crowd Helps Band: That the people of Gettysburg appreciate the efforts of the Citizens Band and are anxious to contribute toward furnishing new music and new instruments was demonstrated Wednesday night, when about three hundred people attended the band benefit dance at Xavier Hall.

The committee expects to clear about $100 for the band treasury. Music was furnished by the Gettysburg orchestra, which volunteered its services.

New City Cafe: A remodeling process is underway at the City Hotel to convert the west side of the structure into a cafe. Charles Miller and Joseph Miller, both of Lewisstown, will have charge of the New City Cafe, which will supplant the old dining room of the City Hotel. The establishment will be opened about May 25.

Benefit Concert Thursday Night: Tickets are being sold by members of the Treble Clef club for a concert, in order to raise funds for the benefit of the Annie M. Warner hospital treasury. The musical will be given Thursday evening in St. James Chapel.

Mrs. J. B. Baker is director of the club and Mrs. S. F. Snyder accompanist. Other members are Mrs. Karl Grimm, Mrs. R. E. Zinn, Mrs. Paul Pontius, Miss Agot Borge, Miss Ann Hollebach, Mrs. Guile Lelever, Mrs. Herbert Allen, Miss Grace Sachs, Miss Olive Hoke, Mrs. Edmund Thomas, Mrs. Edward Troette and Miss Carrie Miller.

Mrs. Walter L. Reynolds, of York street and Miss Mabel McCleary, of East Middle street, spent Monday in Hanover.

Mrs. Charles M. Harbach and daughter Grace, have gone to Carlisle after visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Harbach, Chambersburg street.

RACIAL JUSTICE BEING SOUGHT AT CONFERENCE

By JAMES MARLOW
San Francisco, May 9 (AP)—Minority race and color groups everywhere and the people living in colonies owned and run by alien nations are looking toward San Francisco.

They ask this question: Will the United Nations Security Conference find a way to save us from persecution or discrimination at any time in the future? Will it and respect for our human rights?

Disappointed Already
Some of them, Negroes in this country, are disappointed now. And this is why:

The Big Four—United States, United Kingdom, Soviet Union and China—have agreed on the following language as expressing the purpose of the no-more-war organization which the United Nations are trying to create here:

"To achieve international cooperation in the solution of international economic, social, cultural and other humanitarian problems and promotion and encouragement of respect for human rights and for fundamental freedom for all without distinction as to race, language, religion or sex."

Then comes this paragraph: "Nothing contained in this charter shall authorize the organization to intervene in matters which are essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of the state concerned or require the members to submit such matters to settlement under this charter."

Negro Criticism
Walter White and W. E. B. DuBois, Negro leaders, have sent a note to Secretary of State Stettinius, criticizing the paragraph quoted above.

In part their note said: "This means that the international organization cannot interfere in colonial affairs. It may also make possible any attempt to safeguard the rights of any group in any nation; for instance, it could not combat the race and religious persecution of another Hitler."

White and DuBois estimate that there are 800 million people living in colonies around the world.

Flashes Of Life

YO HO HO
Pearl Harbor (AP)—"Splice the main brace" said the high priority message from London to the British liaison office here.

The message meant that the ration of rum would be doubled for all hands in the British Pacific fleet because of V-E Day.

WORTH IT

Santa Fe, N. M. (AP)—The paper shortage wasn't that acute, but popcorn vendor James Zervos paid $10 for a newspaper telling of Germany's capitulation.

Months ago he advertised offering that amount to the first newsboy bringing him a paper with word of the surrender. He kept his word and Alfred Rivera, 15, cashed the $10 check on which Zervos noted: "For the surrender of the German murderers."

BAIT

Wauconda, Ill. (AP)—When Douglas Crooks opened his candy shop on V-E Day he placed on the floor of the shop a 13-foot long Nazi flag which he had received from a friend in Germany.

Customers were invited by Crooks to wipe their feet on the flag. "Business was good all day," Crooks said.

ATROCITY

Seattle, Wash. (AP)—Reluctant as he is to talk about his war experiences, Lt. Col. Howard F. Bair does recount one—with a shudder.

"Two German JU-8s were jumped by our fighters over Scotland," he reminisces. "They jet-tisoned their bombs and were shot down. The bombs hurt no one—just struck a mountain."

"But that mountain was just a huge vat for 361,000 gallons of vintage Scotch whiskey."

TOUGH BREAK

Los Angeles (AP)—On perhaps the biggest news day of his career, veteran newsie Tony Lopez appeared on his downtown street corner with, of all things, largyness.

"With news like this, though," he whispered, "you don't need to holler."

IT'S A GIFT

New York (AP)—Bundles given united national clothing collection workers here have included:

(1) A full set of ration books.
(2) A girl's best skirt. Workers found it in time for her big date that night.

(3) The family laundry, confused with used clothing by a small boy who returned saying, "mama will be mad at me."

ANCIENT MARINER

New York (AP)—Police were searching the waterfront today for a 100-year old retired seaman, William S. Clark, reported missing from Sailors' Snug harbor here. Officials of the home suggested to police he had run away to join the Merchant Marine.

Facts For Sweet Corn Growers

Sweet corn requires more moisture than falls as rain in a normal growing season. Reduced to practical terms this means that corn soils should contain plenty of moisture-holding organic matter to a liberal depth. Avoid hard and shallow soils in all cases. A green manure crop turned under every few years in the rotation is a profitable investment where sweet corn is grown on a large scale. Livestock manure is well invested for this role in most garden and truck crop soils.

The major key to successful sweet corn growing is to make a succession of plantings from early May until mid-summer in order to have fresh corn reaching edible size from early July until after the first killing frosts of autumn.

There are two important methods and reasons for using commercial fertilizer in growing sweet corn: (1) Applications before planting time promote vigorous stalk growth and thereby hasten early and sustained plant development; (2) Side dressings of nitrogenous fertilizer, preferably nitrate of soda, increases the number of edible ears, improves ear quality, and speeds up ear formation. From 400 to 600 pounds of complete fertilizer per acre is recommended at or before planting time, with at least two side dressings, the first by the time stalks are two feet tall and the second before ears appear.

Use Resistant Strains
Where sweet corn will, often called Stewart's disease, has been troublesome in recent years, growers should plant only the resistant strains as sold by reputable seed dealers. To date no means of preventing or controlling this disease by use of sprays or dusts or seed treatments have been devised.

It is advisable to buy fresh seed each year instead of saving seed from home grown crop. Sweet corn is easily "crossed" by pollen from field and pop corn, and too, many strains lose much of their sweetness when propagated from the best home grown seed.

Corn ear worms are, of course, the most destructive insect pests. However, there need be no hesitation in planning to grow sweet corn because of this enemy, for it can be fully controlled. In fact, every gardener should know in advance of the season how to keep ear worms from damaging his crop. The importance of this task cannot be over-emphasized, by those who grow corn for home use as well as the market gardener.

Formerly ear worms were combated by dusting the fresh silks with a half-and-half mixture of arsenate of lead and fine sulphur. But many persons were reluctant to eat corn treated with so dangerous a poison. So, in the last few years growers and crop experts have turned to the use of ordinary medicinal mineral oil, such as is sold by all druggists. Watch close-

RAFFENBERGER TO NAVY

Philadelphia, May 9 (AP)—Ken Raffensberger, Southpaw hurler from York, Pa., and leading moundsman for the Philadelphia Phillies last year, was assigned to the Navy following his induction into the armed forces Monday, the Army Public Relations office announced.

Third Service Command Issues Statement On War Prisoners

The following statement was issued from the Public Relations Office of the Army Service Forces, Third Service Command, at New Cumberland, Pa.:

"New Cumberland, Pa., May 2—Numerous rumors concerning the treatment of German prisoners of war held at the Prisoner of War Compound in New Cumberland, Pa., have sprung up in the area and because most of them are so wholly untrue, it seems advisable to clear up misunderstandings on the part of the public by setting forth the facts.

"First of all, it should be mentioned that the working of prisoners of war has developed into a $100,000-a-year business for our Government. The realization of this sum is possible because an employer is required to pay the same rate per unit of work completed that he would have to pay free civilian labor if it were available, but the prisoner who does the work receives only 80 cents per man per day—80 cents in fifteen coupons for they are not given cash. The difference is paid to the United States Government.

No Labor Competition
"In the year 1944 alone, prisoners working for the Army performed a total of 19,567,719 man-days of work, ranging from such highly skilled work as watch repairing to common maintenance labor. During the same year, the prisoners performed 10,181,275 man-days of work for contact employers, the bulk of this work being in agriculture. It should be borne in mind always that the prisoners of war DO NOT in any way compete with civilian labor, since they are never sent into an area until that area has been declared critical in manpower by the War Manpower Commission.

"Complaints from the public are continually voiced with regard to the prisoners being served articles of food which are unattainable by civilians. Under the Geneva Convention, which is law, food rations of prisoners of war shall be equal to those of troops at base camps. At New Cumberland, the German prisoners are served certain substitutes, such as oleomargarine for butter, syrup and molasses instead of sugar in cooking.

Fish And Meats
"Though the caloric and nutritional value of the G. I. menus and the P. W. menus are the same, the P. W.'s get most of their calories from bread, potatoes, beans and macaroni, while the G. I.'s get most of their calories from the meat dish. Fish and scrapple each are served twice during a week as the main dish to P. W.'s here, while our G. I.'s receive fish only once a week and never receive scrapple. Stew or goulash, using only the cheaper cuts of meat, are served to P. W.'s, never steaks, chicken, ham or bacon. Main courses to P. W.'s other than fish and scrapple often consist of bean soup, dumplings and sausage. In addition, very little shortening is issued to them; very little pastry is baked by P. W.'s and wasting of food is not tolerated. In the P. W. mess here at New Cumberland, it is estimated that the cost of feeding P. W.'s is 15 to 20 per cent less than the cost of feeding G. I.'s due to the use of certain substitutes and to the utilization of lower-priced foods.

"The current cigarette shortage has caused no end of griping that the German prisoners are given cigarettes when our soldier and civilians can't buy them. Previously they received three packages of cigarettes per week, always the less popular and least desirable brands. However, effective immediately, they are no longer allowed to purchase ready-made cigarettes, but will be authorized to buy tobacco and paper to make their own.

Prisoners' Clothes
"As for clothing, the prisoners here at New Cumberland are issued what is called Class 'X' clothing, which is reclaimed and reclassified clothing that still has some wear in it, but which is not suitable for issue to our soldiers, except as work clothing. Thus, the Government saves again in issuing this clothing to prisoners instead of having to requisition standard uniforms for them.

"Any deviation on our part from the terms of the Geneva Convention probably would result in instant retaliation by the German Government against thousands of Americans. The prisoners here are treated strictly but fairly and have contributed valuable man-work hours. Not to be overlooked is the fact that our strict adherence to the terms of the Geneva Convention has served to lower the fighting morale of the German troops.

Italian Prisoners
"To clarify the confusion about Italian prisoners, about whose status there has been much misunderstanding, it is to be remembered that they are divided into two groups. One group, composed largely of Fascists, is treated as regular prisoners of war. The other group consists of prisoners of war who have volunteered to assist our war effort and who have been organized into Italian Service Units. Though in a special status, these Italian Service Unit men are still prisoners of war but the big difference is that they can be used on any task short of combat, whereas regular prisoners of war cannot be used in tasks having direct relation with war operations. In all cases where Italian Service Units have been used, they have supplemented American civilian labor where an acute shortage threatened to disrupt operations essential to the war effort. Despite all reports, their privileges are relatively few, and they are the lowest paid class of workers in our war effort, receiving $24.00 a month, one third of which is in cash."

Pittsburgh, May 9 (AP)—The Golden Triangle glowed again last night as the government lifted its ban on window illumination and outdoor lighting. The Duquesne Light company estimated the "brownout" which began February 1 saved 3,000 to 4,000 tons of coal here.

Pittsburgh, May 9 (AP)—With war in Europe at an end, the American Red Cross is closing its blood donor center here May 19, Roy G. Bostwick, chairman of the center, said today. This is part of a move to close 19 of the 30 blood donor services now in operation.

BROKEN NECK

Army Doctors Make Discovery
It has been the experience of army doctors that an ointment containing a sulphur drug and urea has done exceptionally good work on the war front as a head-lice, industrial skin infections, itching of eczema, psoriasis and first aid. This combination of ingredients is available to the folks back home and the name is VICTORY OINTMENT. This ointment is white, greasy, and also contains lanoline and benzoin. It is antiseptic, pain relieving and promotes healing. Factory workers will find VICTORY OINTMENT the best for hands. Safe for adults or children. Safe to use on any part of the body. What It Means
The President's statement issued along with his V-E proclamation yesterday reiterated this country's insistence on unconditional surrender by the Japanese military and naval forces. But Mr. Truman then asked what unconditional surrender means for the Japanese people and supplied this answer:

"It means the end of the war.
"It means the termination of the influence of the military leaders who have brought Japan to the present brink of disaster.
"It means provision for the return of soldiers and sailors to their families, their farms, their jobs.
"It means not prolonging the present agony and suffering of the Japanese in the vain hope of victory."

"Unconditional surrender does not mean the extermination or enslavement of the Japanese people."

More than 1,000 Salvation Army mobile canteens are now in service throughout the world.

story this date unsubmitted SHAEF censorship channels, reference your message to General Eisenhower dated 7th May.

"Suspension filing privileges Associated Press revoked and authority now granted correspondents other than Ed Kennedy to submit material for transmission.

Kennedy's Explanation "Kennedy suspended self-admitted deliberate violation SHAEF regulations and breach confidence. Investigation filing story by Kennedy continues and report results of findings will be communicated to you as soon as practicable."

In a radiogram to the Supreme commander of the Western Allies, Mr. Cooper also requested that Edward Kennedy, chief of the Associated Press Paris bureau, be permitted to state his own case concerning how he broke the story of Germany's surrender a full day ahead of the official announcement, and asked Gen. Eisenhower to state the Supreme headquarters position respecting the elements of security involved in the surrender story.

Kennedy has been under suspension by Supreme headquarters in Paris since shortly after he telephoned his story to London on Monday. He has not been allowed to send messages of any description, and therefore has been unable to supply his own account of the circumstances of the news story that won enthusiastic praise from many American editors or to reply to published criticism of his actions by rival correspondents.

Lifted General Order For six hours and twenty minutes Monday the entire Associated Press staff in the European theater was under similar suspension, but this was lifted for all except Kennedy.

Subsequently, yesterday afternoon, Morton Gudebrod of the Associated Press Paris staff also was suspended. He had handled the surrender story on Monday for French newspapers, with the approval of French censorship.

Lifting of the general suspension order against the AP followed a request by Mr. Cooper to Secretary of War Stimson and a message from Cooper to Eisenhower inquiring as to the circumstances.

Blood Donor

week, Mrs. Robinson Simmons, chairman of the Harrisburg center, quoted as national announcement as follows:

"It is with profound admiration for the splendid achievements of the Harrisburg Blood Donor Service that I inform you that the task of procuring blood for the armed forces in and near Harrisburg . . . will be completed May 9, and that the centers and mobile units are to cease operation on that date.

"This decision is necessitated . . . in view of changing conditions of the war in Europe. Needs can be met by the centers on the west coast and by a few of the larger centers in the north and east.

"The surgeon general of the army and navy have asked me to convey to the members of the Harrisburg Blood Donor Service, to nearby chapters visited by your unit and to the thousands of volunteer donors in and near Harrisburg their deep appreciation of the generous support which has made possible your record.

"I know everyone who has taken part in this project must feel a deep sense of satisfaction at having been able to make such a personal contribution toward saving the lives of wounded men."

Accept Bids For Work On Bridge

The bids of W. H. Drawbaugh, Dover, for work on and around a bridge over Potomac creek in Tyrone township was accepted this morning by the county commissioners as they held their regular weekly meeting.

Drawbaugh's bid for opening the channel in the creek was $900, while he bid $1,150 for the construction of a retaining wall. The only other bid received was that of John S. Teeter and sons for the opening of the channel at $1,397.77.

GAME CANCELLED

The baseball game scheduled for Tuesday afternoon between the Gettysburg college nine and an army team at New Cumberland was cancelled. The game will not be rescheduled. It was announced today by Prof. C. E. Bilheimer, athletic director at Gettysburg college.

Los Angeles, May 9 (AP)—Nick Moran, Mexican welterweight, scored a stunning upset over Cpl. Bob Montgomery, recognized in New York as the world lightweight champion, by winning a decision in 10 rounds at Olympic auditorium last night.

RADIO PROGRAMS

New York, May 9 (AP)—History in the making was to be heard in homes all over the land as the networks recorded the Allied world's observance of May 8 as V-E day.

From 9 a. m., when President Truman broadcast, followed by a transcription of Prime Minister Churchill's simultaneous message from London, until the last hours of the broadcast day, every program, special or otherwise, gave attention to the occasion.

Television joined in, the NBC station in New York carrying its longest television on record, from 9 a. m. to midnight. The CBS and Dumont stations also had special programs.
